My Ancestral History
SHC by J. F. Bates

GA

IN THE SHADOW OF OLD GRASSY MOUNTAIN

The known beginning of the Bates line to date is the marriage of Julius Bates and Temperance West. From this union, there came thirteen children. Several of the male children fought in the Civil War, at least two came West, and at least one was of the Latter-Day Saint (Mormon) faith.

The Bates owned a large plantation in northern Georgia before the Civil War. Julius and his brother, (General) John, acquired land through the land lottery which occurred when the Indian tribes were displaced.

Of course, all of the "real" Bates' come from Georgia. One acid test to determine a real Bates is to ask them if they know the story of Tempe (Temperance) and the bear. At the risk of exposing the story to outsiders, here goes.

In the area where Julius and Tempe lived, there were concerns about Indian raids. Tempe and the girls were at home while Julius and several sons were working in a nearby field. The men in the field always kept their guns handy. When they heard a shot, which came from the direction of the house, they all picked up their guns and ran. They were expecting an Indian attack. When they got back to the house, Tempe was standing there with a smoking gun. She is reported to have said "Y'all go back to work, it's only a bear." They went back to work, and Tempe went down in Bates' history.

Otto L. Schlemeyer, late of Waco, Texas, did more than anyone I am aware of to collect a history of the Julius Bates family of Georgia. Serving as the "Bates Family Historian" for several years, he traveled to Chatsworth during the 1950s. The stories he collected are largely unsubstantiated, but probably true. He published them in the Bates Family Newsletter. Out of respect to him and his work, I have selected the following for inclusion in this history. My comments are separated from Otto's by parentheses.

Spring Place, Georgia
14 April 1953

"Our first visit to Spring Place was made in March, 1953. Spring Place is located approximately 3 miles west of Chatsworth, Georgia, which is the County seat of Murray County. We were impressed with the few old houses and buildings that were still remaining of a once busy "jumping-off" place for travelers going west by wagon train in the early days. Here, especially right after the War Between the States, teams and wagons were prepared for the long journey west, wagons in a lot of instances pulled by oxen. Wagon trains were assembled here by the dozens of families who were turning their faces westward and their backs on a defeated and miserable land.

"During this time, Spring Place was known as the county seat of Murray County, but a little later on, the county seat was moved to Chatsworth, the present county seat, located on U.S. Highway 411, running from Knoxville, Tennessee, south to connect with U.S. 41 at Cartersville and thence on into Atlanta. Here at Spring Place, the country is comparatively level to what it is a few miles to the east where the towering Cohutta Range of the Blue Ridge chain of mountains extends almost to Chatsworth and south into the outskirts of Atlanta.

"The old court house at Spring Place was built in the 1870s, and the walls are over two feet thick. The doors and windows are still in use and are of the same general pattern of the woodwork in use at the time. It is an ancient place and is really worth a visit there to see the old landmarks which are slowly disappearing. In some places there are only broken foundations of once large buildings, such as stores and hotels, but now, through fires and non-usage, the number of establishments have been reduced to where there are only two or three newer stores and five or six old houses that are still being lived in. It was a great place in its day. The old brick house of the Chief of the once powerful Cherokee Nation still stands here. Built in 1790 by slave labor, it still stands although it has not been used and has been wide open to vandalism for over a hundred years." (Otto is referring here to the Chief Vann House, which was later restored. In 1980, it was a museum in good repair. In 1982, Ora donated furniture which had been in the family for generations.)

"I talked to quite a few of the old settlers there and they informed me that the Bates families used to be quite numerous there - some being lawyers and doctors and in a way general property owners, and I was further informed that there were hundreds of Bates there about fifty years ago, but the Bates have been on the decline to where there are only a few remaining, and also that most of the descendants have some other name now.

"We obtained quite a bit of information on our first visit from various people there but I did not get to see the one person that could have helped immensely in tracing the Bates. He was a Colonel King that lived at Spring Place but he was too feeble and sickly to be seen at that time. He was ninety-four years old and in his time he knew all the Bates, especially all those in Murray County.

"This is all for this time, but will make a detailed report on our next trip to Murray County, which should be in the very near future.

Sincerely,
Otto L. Schlemeyer

The old court house at Spring Place was built in 1844, and the walls are over two feet thick. The doors and windows are still in use and are of the same general pattern of the windows in use at the time. Marietta, Ga.
18 August 1953

"We did not get to make any further investigations until Sunday, 16 Aug 1953, when we left Marietta and drove the sixty miles to Chatsworth in an hour and a half, arriving there at 10:30 a.m. We inquired of a local gasoline station attendant about the Bates and I actually found someone that knew the whole history of the Bates for the last thirty years.

"From him, I obtained the names of several descendants that still lived in the area. The first being Mrs. M. P. Bates, the wife of Dr. Morgan Price Bates, who died in 1940 at the age of 68. Mrs. Bates lives at Ramhurst, about eight miles south of Chatsworth. She lives in a large thirteen room house alone and has six tenant families farming a 1440 acre plantation. The house was built in 1870 by a previous Bates and it has several very large oak trees in the front yard. The place takes in several high mountains and is really a beautiful place.

"From this Mrs. Bates, who is about seventy years old, we got in touch with several others. She was very happy to go with us and show us the remaining Bates who were still living in that region. She kept remarking about the resemblance between me and her husband. At one time, she made the remark that she hoped I would pardon her for staring at me but I looked exactly like her late husband.

"First, we visited Grover C. Bates, age 68, who was born in 1885. He lives near Crandall, Ga., six miles north of Chatsworth, from whom we obtained quite a bit of information. He is the exact duplicate of Uncle Bob Bates of Stephenville. Even his talk and actions are exactly alike. His father was Eldredge Lafayette ("Edge") Bates, son of Miller McAfee Bates, who was the brother of Jefferson Bates. Grover has a 180 acre plantation of cotton and corn and several tenants on the place. He, as well as all the other farmers in this area, grow a lot of cotton and corn, and some-times tobacco for commercial use, but they always have at least two rows of tobacco in their garden for their own use.

"On a wooded knoll near his large and beautiful home, there is the old family graveyard. Back in the early days, each family had their own private graveyard where members of their immediate family and their negro slaves were buried. We drove back to the knoll and there, amidst tall pine trees and heavy brush, we came upon the graves of the beginning of the Bates in Murray County, Ga., and possibly throughout the west. The markers, although very old and dim, were still readable. These were the graves of Julius and Temperance Bates.

"There were several other graves on this knoll but we had to move a lot of brush to find them. The last burial had taken place there about 1875. Some of the graves were marked indicating Bates and there were several with only a rock at the head and foot which were possibly the graves of Negro slaves.

18 August 1955

"We did not get to make any further investigations until Sunday, 28 Aug 1955, when we left Marietta and drove the sixty miles to Chatsworth in an hour and a half, arriving there at 10:30 a.m. We inquired of a local gasoline station attendant about the Bates and I actually found someone that knew the whole history of the Bates for the last thirty years.

"From him, I obtained the names of several descendants that still lived in the area. The first being Mrs. M. P. Bates, the wife of Dr. Morgan Price Bates, who died in 1940 at the age of 85. Mrs. Bates lives at Chatsworth, about eight miles south of Chatsworth. She lives in a large Victorian type house where she has a tenant farming a 140 acre plantation. The house was built in 1850 by a prominent Bates and it has several very large oak trees on the front yard. The place lies in several high mountains and is really a beautiful place.

"From this Mrs. Bates, who is about seventy years old, we got in touch with several others. She had very happy to go with us and show us the remaining Bates who were still living in that region. She went personally about the neighborhood on foot for hunting. At one time, she near the mountain-side she moved I would perhaps for starting at me that I looked actually like her late husband.

"First, we visited George C. Bates, age 63, who was born in 1892. He lives near Crandall, Ga., six miles north of Chatsworth, from whom we obtained quite a lot of information. He is the exact duplicate of Uncle John Bates of Tuscaloosa. Even his talk and actions are exactly alike. His father was Elbridge Lafayette ("Lige") Bates, son of William Hughes Bates, who was the brother of Jefferson Bates. George has a 120 acre plantation of cotton and corn and several tenants on the place. He, as well as all the other Bates, lives in a area, grow a lot of cotton and corn, and some-times tobacco for commercial use, but they always have at least two rows of tobacco in their garden for their own use.

"In a wooded small hollow lies a large and beautiful home, there is the old family graveyard. Back in the early day, each family had their own private graveyard where members of their immediate family and their negro slaves were buried. We drove back to the front and there, amidst tall pine trees and heavy brush, we came upon the graves of the beginning of the Bates in Murray County, Ga., and possibly throughout the east. The markers, although very old and old, were still readable. These were the graves of William and Temperance Bates.

"There were several other graves on this itself but we had to move a lot of brush to find them. The last burial had taken place there about 1910. Some of the graves were marked indicating Bates and there were several with only a rock at the head and foot which were possibly the graves of negro slaves.

"Julius and Temperance Bates moved from Hall County, Ga., to Murray County in 1832, where they established a large plantation and raised children.

"All of the children left Murray County sometime between 1845 and 1870 except McAfee and Robinson. After Julius and Temperance died, they divided up the original place and built large homes and raised large families. All the Bates I talked to this day were third or fourth generation from these two brothers. We visited the homes these two Bates built and they are really wonderful to see. They are still in the descendant's possession but are rented out. Every old Bates' place we visited that day had their own private graveyard which had not been used in at least sixty or seventy years.

"At one place we found, in a hog pen, the grave of General John Bates, his consort Barbary Bates, and their two sons. General John Bates was the brother of Julius Bates and the marker indicated he died on October 2, 1854. The hogs had rooted up all the marble slab markers and they were turned over and could not be read except the ones on the graves of the General and Barbary. There is a John Bates presently living in Colgate, Oklahoma, who is a fourth generation Bates from General John Bates.

"It is interesting to note that all the private Bates' graves that we found that day faced Grassy Mountain, a four thousand foot mountain just to the east of the valley in which the Bates' plantation is located. It appears that all the lives of the Bates were spent in view of that great mountain whose early morning shadow fell over the thousands of acres of the plantation. This was the first time that Grover Bates had visited the General John Bates family graves in over forty years and they are only two miles from his home. He indicated he was going to have them improved and isolated.

"McAfee Bates, son of Julius and Temperance Bates, built a large house in the 1870s, and raised a large family in the shadow of old Grassy Mountain. One of his sons, Napolean Bonaparte (Pole) Bates, died only a few years ago and seemed to be the only one who had made an effort to trace the Bates name back through history. He had had quite a bit of correspondence with a genealogist in the east who traced the name back about 500 years into England and Wales. At first, the name was spelled "Bate" but somewhere along the line it picked up an "s".

"After Napolean Bonaparte Bates died, all his letters and effects were moved to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charley Phillips of Crandall. She looked through some of the things but could not find them at that time, but stated she would continue her search for them. As soon as I saw Mrs. Phillips, I wanted to say, "Hello, Aunt Minnie," as they look exactly alike, and she knew that I was a Bates before any one could tell her.

"Mrs. Buelah Bates Phillips is now 69, and lives near Crandall, Ga. As was stated above, she is the daughter of N. B. Bates, whose father was Miller McAfee Bates, brother of Jefferson. Miller McAfee Bates, born in 1824, left his home in Murray County, Ga., in 1907, at the age of 83, to visit a son at Pryor, Oklahoma, where he died suddenly and is now buried there. (Ora gave me another perspective on this "visit", which I have included later in the text.)

Dulins and Temperance Bates raised four Mail County, Ga., in Murray County in 1927, where they established a large plantation and raised children.

All of the children left Murray County sometime between 1935 and 1950 except Wayne and Hortensen. After Dulins and Temperance died, they divided up the original place and built large houses and raised large families. All the Bates I talked to this day were third or fourth generation from these two pioneers. We visited the houses where the Bates built and they are really wonderful to see. They are still in the descendants's possession but are rented out. Every old Bates' place we visited that day had their own private graveyard which had not been used in at least sixty or seventy years.

At one place we found, in a dog pen, the grave of General John Bates, his consort Barbary Bates, and their two sons. General John Bates was the brother of Dulins Bates and the marker indicated he died on October 5, 1854. The dogs had rooted up all the marble slab markers and they were turned over and could not be read except the ones on the graves of the General and Barbary. There is a John Bates presently living in Calhoun, Georgia, who is a fourth generation Bates from General John Bates.

It is interesting to note that all the private Bates' graves that we found that day faced East; Mountain, a four thousand foot mountain just to the east of the valley in which the Bates' plantation is located. It appears that all the lives of the Bates were spent to view of that great mountain where every morning shadow fell over the thousands of acres of the plantation. This was the first time that Grover Bates had visited the General John Bates family graves in over forty years and they are only two miles from his home. He indicated he was going to have them improved and isolated.

"Mother Bates", son of Dulins and Temperance Bates, built a large house in the Bates, and raised a large family in the shadow of old Grassy Mountain, the far of his sons, Benjamin Bonapartes (Pole) Bates, died only a few years ago and proved to be the only one who had made an effort to trace the Bates name back through history. He had built a file of correspondence with genealogist in the east who traced the name back about 500 years into England and Wales. At first, his name was spelled "Bate" but somewhere along the line it picked up an "s".

After Benjamin Bonapartes Bates died, all his letters and effects were found in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charley Phillips of Cranda, Ga. She turned through some of the things but could not find them at that time, but promised she would continue her search for them. As soon as I saw Mrs. Phillips, I wanted to say, "Hello, Aunt Minnie," as they look exactly alike, and she knew that I was a Bates before she could tell her.

Mrs. Louisa Bates Phillips is now 83, and lives near Cranda, Ga. As was stated above, she is the daughter of B. B. Bates, whose father was Miller McAfee Bates, brother of Jeffrey. Miller McAfee Bates, born in 1824, died here in Murray County, Ga., in 1907, at the age of 83. He visit a son at Tryer, Oklahoma, where he also succumbed and is now buried there. Here was another perspective on this "story", which I have included later in the text.

NOTES ON SOME ALLIED CONNECTIONS OF THE DANIEL FAMILY.

THE BATES FAMILY. The first BATES to arrive in VIRGINIA, so far as my record I can find is concerned, was JOHN BATES, who was a "servant" of ABRAHAM PERSEY, who at one time was the wealthiest man in the JAMESTOWN settlement. JOHN BATES is mentioned as early as 1626. JOHN BATES became a "merchant", and must have been a man of parts. ABRAHAM PERSEY died in 1626 and left a will, in which one of the "overseers" named by him was the REV. GRENVILLE POOLEY, who had courted CYCELY JORDAN, the early VIRGINIA GLAMOUR GIRL, who had no less than five husbands and who sued her for breach of promise. It so happens that the genealogy of the BATES FAMILY, the descendants of JOHN became intimately related to the JORDAN family afterwards, just as they also intermarried with the WOODSONS. The ancestress of the WOODSONS is said to have been a SARAH WINSTON. That there is some foundation for this claim is partly supported in reason by the fact that when JOHN BATES died in 1666 in BRUTON PARISH, YORK COUNTY, the witness to his will was WILLIAM WINSTON (BOOK 4, p. 165 YORK COUNTY). Fairfax Harrison, in his admirable story of the SKIMMINO HARRISONS, says that JOHN BATES was born about 1598 and died in 1666 and that he was a resident of MIDDLETOWN (BRUTON) PARISH at the time of his death. This writer has puzzled over the obvious connection of the BATES FAMILY with the DANIEL FAMILY for many years and has at last ferreted out the facts. The name of the wife of JOHN BATES will never be known, perhaps, but reasoning the matter from all angles it is not improbable that SARAH WINSTON (whom it is claimed was the wife of DR. JOHN WOODSON) may have had a sister who married JOHN BATES and that they were both sisters of the WILLIAM WINSTON who witnessed the will of BATES in 1666. If so, the connection between the BATES and WOODSONS dates back to 1620 when DR. JOHN is supposed to have arrived in Virginia. ROGER DANIEL, the ancestor of the DANIEL FAMILY is believed to have come along not long afterwards, say about 1630 or 1635. I have raked up only two children for JOHN BATES and his wife, whoever she may have been. They were:

(1) GEORGE BATES (born about 1625).
(2) SUSANNA BATES married STEPHEN TARLTON.

The children of STEPHEN TARLTON (shown in Chart on page 231) were STEPHEN, JOHN (m. SUSANNA FLEMING), SUSANNA (m. CHARLES FLEMING), JUDITH (m. JOHN WOODSON), CHARLES, and ELIZABETH, who married STEPHEN HUGHES.

The name of the wife of (1) GEORGE BATES is said to have been MARY.

(1) GEORGE BATES (and his wife MARY) had children:

(3) JAMES BATES (1650-1723)
(4) JOHN BATES (1755-1719) m. ELIZABETH DANIEL.

(4) JOHN BATES and his wife ELIZABETH DANIEL (Sister of JOHN DANIEL who married ELIZABETH WILLIAMS) had the following children:

(5) GEORGE BATES (Called "My God-son GEORGE BATES" in will of JOHN DANIEL in 1685-6)
(6) JAMES BATES m. SARAH ....
(7) ANN BATES married JOHN DANIEL (Will 1723-4)
(8) HANNAH BATES married TARLTON FLEMING
(9) JOHN BATES JR. married SUSANNA FLEMING.

The brothers JAMES and JOHN BATES both became QUAKERS under the preaching of the famous THOMAS STORY and it was at the home of JOHN BATES on SKIMMINO that STORY held one of his first meetings in VIRGINIA. JOHN BATES and his wife ELIZABETH DANIEL entertained STORY though they were not Quakers, but STORY in his account says that at this meeting "both JOHN BATES and his wife were convinced of the truth".

(5) GEORGE BATES. Of him we have no record other than the mention made of him in the will of his uncle JOHN DANIEL in 1685.

(6) JAMES BATES and his wife SARAH (maiden name unknown) were the parents of HANNAH BATES who married SAMUEL JORDAN. SAMUEL JORDAN belonged to a QUAKER family of HAMMOND or Isle of Wight County and they had a regular QUAKER WEDDING. They were married on JAN. 3, 1738.*

* NOTE: Among the nineteen persons (All QUAKERS, of course), who are listed among those who attended the wedding of HANNAH BATES to SAMUEL JORDAN on January 3, 1733, was a certain SAMUEL WALLACE. This wedding took place in YORK COUNTY on SKIMMINO CREEK. There was a family of WALLACES who lived in YORK and ELIZABETH CITY COUNTY to which this SAMUEL must have belonged. This SAMUEL WALLACE was NOT from PENNSYLVANIA, but belonged to the family of WALLACE that lived on BACK RIVER in NEW POQUOSON in YORK or ELIZABETH CITY COUNTY which was established there by the REV. JAMES WALLACE in the 17TH CENTURY. SAMUEL WALLACE moved to PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY, Virginia and settled on BUFFALO CREEK where he patented lands and married ESTHER BAKER, a daughter of CALEB BAKER. in 1772 he moved to CHARLOTTE COUNTY. His son CALEB BAKER WALLACE was born in 1742 and in 1782 father and son moved to KENTUCKY, where CALEB BAKER WALLACE became a distinguished JUDGE on the Kentucky Bench. In 1775 CALEB BAKER WALLACE was appointed an Executor of the will of JAMES CUNNINGHAM, of CHARLOTTE COUNTY. Three of his wife's brothers married daughters of REV. JOHN THOMPSON, who died in MECKLENBURG COUNTY, N. C. in 1753.

(6) ANN BATES married JOHN DANIEL. (See children page 248)

(7) HANNAH BATES married TARLTON FLEMING. TARLTON FLEMING was the son of CHARLES FLEMING and his wife SUSANNA TARLTON, son of STEPHEN TARLTON and SUSANNA BATES. This writer has never been able to find a complete list of the children of TARLTON FLEMING and HANNAH BATES, but below is given the names of those we have found ascribed to them from different sources:

(10) TARLTON FLEMING married MARY HERKELEY.
(11) ELIZABETH FLEMING married JOSIAS PAYNE, JR.
(12) JUDITH FLEMING married (1730) THOMAS WILLIAMSON.

MARY HERKELEY who married TARLTON FLEMING JR. was the daughter of EDMUND HERKELEY and JUDITH RANDOLPH, sister of THOMAS MANN RANDOLPH and ANNE CARY and daughter of WILLIAM RANDOLPH the son of THOMAS RANDOLPH and his wife JUDITH FLEMING; the latter a daughter of CHARLES FLEMING and his wife SUSANNA BARNSON (daughter of STEPHEN TARLTON and SUSANNA BATES).

JOSIAS PAYNE, JR. who married ELIZABETH FLEMING, daughter of TARLTON FLEMING, was the son of JOSIAS PAYNE and grandson of GEORGE PAYNE who married MARY WOODSON. MARY WOODSON was the sister of JOHN WOODSON who married JUDITH TARLTON (daughter of STEPHEN TARLTON and SUSANNA BATES). JOSIAS PAYNE JR. had a sister ANNE PAYNE who married WILLIAM HARRISON in 1763. JOSIAS PAYNE JR. moved from GOOCHLAND or PITTSYLVANIA COUNTY, VA. to the WATAUGA valley in TENNESSEE, and afterwards to the vicinity of NASHVILLE.

(8) JOHN BATES, JR. (brother in law of JOHN DANIEL will 1685) married SUSANNAH FLEMING. She was a sister of TARLTON FLEMING and the daughter of CHARLES FLEMING and SUSANNA TARLTON; she was the grand-daughter of STEPHEN TARLTON and SUSANNA BATES. Her sister URSULA FLEMING married TARLTON WOODSON, and after the death of her first husband JOHN BATES JR. of YORK COUNTY, she married JOHN WOODSON, a brother of TARLTON WOODSON. My information is that SUSANNA FLEMING and her first husband JOHN BATES, JR. had the following children:

(15) CHARLES BATES
(16) GEORGE BATES
(17) JOHN BATES
(18) JAMES BATES
(19) FLEMING BATES

(19) FLEMING BATES married SARAH JORDAN, daughter of BENJAMIN JORDAN, of HANNEMOND COUNTY, VIRGINIA, son of THOMAS JORDAN of CHUCKATUCK, and was the father of

(20) EDWARD BATES married MISS HARRISON
(21) ELISHA BATES married MISS HARRISON
(22) MARY BATES married RATCLIFFE
(23) SARAH BATES married RATCLIFFE
(24) THOMAS FLEMING BATES m. CAROLINE MATILDA WOODSON.

(24) THOMAS FLEMING BATES and his wife CAROLINE MATILDA WOODSON (Daughter of CHARLES WOODSON and grand-daughter of TARLTON WOODSON and URSULA FLEMING) had the following children:

(25) EDWARD BATES, U. S. Attorney General.
(26) FREDERICK BATES
(27) JAMES WOODSON BATES
(28) TARLETON BATES
(29) GEORGE BATES (Gov. of Missouri).
(30) CHARLES BATES
(31) FLEMING BATES
(32) URSULA BATES m. FRANCIS BURDINGTON.

(18) HON. JAMES BATES, son of JOHN BATES, JR. and SUSANNA FLEMING, was a prominent member of the Assembly and the Conventions from GOOCHLAND COUNTY, who married SUSANNA HIX of HICKS, and had two sons who fought in the revolution, from HALIFAX COUNTY, VIRGINIA. They were:

(33) CAPT. FLEMING BATES (1747-1785)
(34) JOHN BATES.

SUSANNA FLEMING, who married JOHN BATES JR., after his death married JOHN WOODSON and moved to GOOCHLAND COUNTY and settled, and they had children JOHN, ROBERT, JOSIAH, STEPHEN, JUDITH and ELIZABETH WOODSON. JOHN WOODSON was the brother of TARLTON WOODSON and they were the sons of JOHN WOODSON who married JUDITH TARLTON and grandson of STEPHEN TARLTON and his wife SUSANNA BATES. JOHN WOODSON who married JUDITH TARLTON was the son of ROBERT WOODSON and his wife ELIZABETH; and ROBERT is supposed to have been one of the two sons of DR. JOHN WOODSON and his wife SARAH WINSTON. As stated before, JOHN BATES, the ancestor of the BATES FAMILY may also have married a WINSTON.

It will be seen that the wife of JOHN BATES, SR. (son of GEORGE BATES, son of JOHN, the emigrant) was ELIZABETH DANIEL, daughter of JOHN DANIEL and grand-daughter of ROGER DANIEL, the "known kinsman" of MILES GARY, the immigrant from BRISTOL, ENGLAND. Thus, it is shown that ELIZABETH DANIEL, her father JOHN and her grandfather ROGER DANIEL were the direct ancestors of all of the members of the BATES FAMILY shown above, from JOHN BATES JR. on down.

JOHN DANIEL (father of JOHN DANIEL who married ANN WILLIAMS, who died in GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C. in 1763) was a first cousin of JOHN BATES JR., second cousin to HON. JAMES BATES of ALBEMARLE and to FLEMING BATES, father of the distinguished family of MISSOURI and ARKANSAS.

251.	John Berry	010110-01110-0	(See No. 161)
252.	Mathias Bates	101111-31010-0

Matthias Bates was living on Mulberry Fork in McKeever's district in 1804, Thomas and Royal were in the 1805 lottery and James A. was in Jackson in 1827. Matthias was enumerated in 1820 in Gwinnett County. His son Anthony, who was listed in Whorton's district in the 1827 Gwinnett lottery, was killed in battle in Texas in 1836.

The name Matthias Bates is found in the census of Wilkes County, N.C. in 1790. This man, perhaps the same as the one in Georgia, appears to have been of a Bates family in Southside Virginia (as early as 1733) where John Bates in 1764 bought land in Pittsylvania County.

A Bates family in Wilkes County, Ga., from Halifax County, Va., (from which Pittsylvania was formed), is found as early as 1789. David Bates married Drusilla Echols, with Moses Echols as surety, in Halifax County Feb. 2, 1782. Various members of the family, including Fleming Bates, are found in the early 1780s in Halifax tax lists with neighbors John, Richard and William Royall or Royal (perhaps the origin of the name Royal Bates in Jackson County). David died in Wilkes County, Ga., his widow Drusilla appearing in the estate records from Nov. 5, 1810. He had been an executor in 1806 of the estate of Anna Daniel who named her son Moses Echols Daniel in her will. Richard Harrison, in applying for a pension in Augusta County, Va., told of marching from Pittsylvania County to Georgia and serving later (1781) under Capt. Fleming Bates. A man of this name was found in Abbeville District, S.C., in 1790 and in Wilkes County, Ga., by 1803, where he was administrator of th estate of one John Bates. Among thos enumerated in 1820 were Fleming, James . and Wilson in Warren County, Ga.; John and Julius in Hall County; and Jesse in Elbert County.

255.	William Maltbie	100010-10100-1

William, son of Navy Capt. Jonathan Maltbie, was born in Fairfield, Conn., April 9, 1783. He and another Connecticut man established a store on Hog Mountain, a trading center from Indian trail days, about 1812 and at the death of his partner, Maltbie came to Gwinnett County to live in 1814. He married in 1817 Philadelphia (1804-1887) daughter of Elisha Winn, and died in Lawrenceville Sept. 24, 1865.

257.	Peggy Hart	000000-10000-0
258.	William Hart	100000-00000-0

The ages at Nos. 257, 258 are as enumerated, although errors seem indicated. John Hart (also spelled Heart) was appointed constable of Jackson County Aug. 1, 1796 and was sheriff 1796-1800. A Hart family from North Carolina was in Wilkes County by 1773.

259.	Elijah Fulton	100010-30010-0

Hugh Fulton was taxed in McKeever's 1803 district in Jackson County. Among others enumerated in 1820 were James of Clarke County and James B. of Hall County.

Also enumerated in Gwinnett 1820 was William (No. 317), and a few others over the state. At the end of the Revolution the family was found chiefly in New England and in Virginia. Isaac was enumerated as 34400 in Greenville District, S. C., in 1790, and in 1800, John was in Greenville and William (20010-10100) in Pendleton District, where he also was listed in 1810. William in 1818 surveyed the Gwinnett courthouse lot and was a justice of the Jackson superior court from 1819 to Oct. 26, 1821. By 1825 the family was established in DeKalb County, where William was a justice in 1826 and he, Amos, Isaac and Lewis and another William were enumerated in 1830.

1790 and in Wilkes County, Ga., by 1801. Moses he was administrator of it, which is now Iron Hills. Among their enumerated in 1820 were Frances, James, and William in Wilkes County, Ga.; Julia and Julianna in Hall County; and James in Elbert County.

295.	William Mathis	100010-10100-1

William, son of Mary Cage, Jonathan Mathis, was born in Fairfield County, August 9, 1783. He and another Connecticut man established a state on the Mississippi, a trading county from Indian trade early, about 1813 and at the death of his mother, Matthis came to Cayuga County to live in 1818. He arrived in 1817 Philadelphia (1824-1827) daughter of Elijah Wilson, and died in Lawrenceville Sept. 24, 1850.

296.	Frederick Hart	100010-21110-0
297.	Percy Hart	000000-10000-0
298.	William Hart	100000-00000-0

The eyes at Nos. 297, 298 are as enumerated, although errors were made. John Hart also spelled Hartzl was supposed connection of Jackson County Aug. 1, 1791 and was about 1788-1800. A Hart family from Morris County was in Wilkes County by 1773.

299.	Elijah Fulton	100010-10010-0

Elijah Fulton was taxed in McCleavers's 1801 District in Jackson County. Among others enumerated in 1820 were James of Clarke County and James M. of Hall County.

Also enumerated in Cayuga 1820 was William (No. 117), and a few years over the state. At the end of the Revolutionary the family was found county in New England and in Virginia. Isaac was enumerated as 34400 in Greenville County, S.C. in 1790, and in 1800, John was in Greenville and William (1001-10100) in Pendleton District, where he also was listed in 1810. William in 1818 surveyed the Cayuga Commissioner for and was a justice of the peace, superior court area, 1819 in Oct. 19, 1821. By 1825 the family was centered in Dekalb County, where William was a justice in 1824 and his Amos, Isaac and Lewis and another William were enumerated in 1830.

The Ships That Brought the Founders of the Nation to Jamestown, 1607.

Genealogical Magazine

Editor: LYON G. TYLER, M. A., LL. D.

Entered as second-class matter at the Post Office in Richmond, Va., according to act of Congress.

family seem to show the life of the family merely extended into a new English setting when Lawrence Dameron moved to Virginia. There is in the history of the Virginia family a sense of continuation of habits and traditions, rather than a violent breaking off of accustomed ways. It was moving to an over-seas parish, instead of to a new parish in Suffolk, and Northumberland on the "Great Bay," facing the wide expanse of Eastern waters, was not so different in situation from the Suffolk country, with its long North Sea coast line.

The Archaeological Report is titled "The Bates Site: Investigation of a Quaker Merchant." The site was owned by 3rd generation John Bates d1719, who was grandson of immigrant John Bates (1586-1656).

Genealogical features of the report will be abstracted and published within future editions of "The Bates Booster" newsletter.

The report presents facts not generally known about the Bates Family. For instance ...

1. In 1630, immigrant John Bates, who arrived in Virginia in the winter of 1623/4, claimed credit for importing himself and six other Headrights, for which he received 350 acres.

2. In 1672, 2nd generation George Bates was listed as a carpenter and former constable. George Bates obtained this 412 acre plot from James Smith.

3. Widow (Mary Smith) of 2nd generation George Bates d1676 married 2nd James Cooper d1680; and married third Edmund Brewer.

4. 1704 York County landholdings plotted showing various Bates tracts and neighbors to include allied families of Tindall, Smith, and Jordan.

5. With two plantations and two stores, John Bates d1719 was one of the richest men in York Co., VA.

6. John Bates' 1720 Estate Inventory was listed item by item on 13 pages. Despite being a Quaker, he owned 30 slaves.

7. Some 16 pages of Artifact Inventory (Spoil from Trash Deposits).

8. Numerous page of "Unique Ceramic Vessel Catalog" with pictures.

Wayne - This is very exciting news indeed, a gold mine of information! I'll need to get a copy of this right away. We already knew a lot from the wills of course as far as wealth and means of living, but there is no substitute for details coming out in concrete form!

Is there any new evidence here to back up my father's research in Williamsburg in the early 1960's, and his conclusion that these tracts lay where part of William & Mary now stands? I remember sending you recently a copy of the letter he received from Williamsburg then regarding his research - along with the photocopies he made in London in 1970 of Her Majesty's ship logs, listing John Bates' passage in 1623 on the Southampton.

By the way, my wife and I were on the Jamestown fort site (standing right in it!) on Sunday afternoon. See the latest information at the APVA website for the Jamestown Rediscovery project:

http://www.apva.org/jr.html

There was an article in the June issue of National Geographic on some of the details of recent finds. We also heard the Discovery Channel will be doing a piece on the subject soon.

The divorce is from page 475 of Chancery Court Minutes 1851-1859. It was filed in Lincoln County on 25 Jan 1859 and was granted on the 25th day of January 1859. The reason of complaint by her counsel and it appears from the testimony in the proceedings of the court, that publication had been regularly made for defendant, Albert J. Beavers for four weeks in succession in the Fayetteville Observer a newspaper published in Fayetteville, TN commanding said defendant to be and appear at the courthouse in Fayetteville on or before the fourth Monday in August 1859 and plead, answer or demur to complainants bill. And said defendants having failed to appear and answer said complainants bill agreeable to the rules of this court-the same is therefore taken for confessed against him and is now set down to be heard enpart.

Be it remembered that this cause came on the be heard on this the 25th day of August 1859 before the Hon. B. L. Ridley Chancellor etc. It appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the said Albert J. Beavers did not provide for his family, and so misused and ill treated Martha F. Beaver that it was dangerous for her to continue to live or cohabit with him. It is therefore ordered that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the said Martha F. Beaver and Albert J. Beavers be dissolved. and it is further ordered adjudged and decreed, that all the right, title and interest that the said Albert J. Beaver have in and to any property in their possession and belonging to them jointly or in his own right be divested out of him and vested in said Martha F. Beaver's to have and to hold the same in her own right-and it is further ordered that all the chores in action ? said Albert has be transferred to and vested in her-and it is further ordered adjudged and decreed that said Martha F. Beavers shall in future be known by her maiden name Martha F. Hampton. Further ordered that the complainant pay the cost of this cause and that she have a decree over against said Albert J. Beaver for the same...

Young, Frances wid.	1

We do certify that the foregoing contains a list of persons applicants for draws in the present Contemplated Land Lottery, with the number of draws to which they are entitled in Maj. James Patterson's Batt. in Wilkes Co. Given from under our hands this first day of Sept. 1806

John Evans
James Patterson.

LAND LOTTERY OF 1819—EXPLANATORY

The land given out in this lottery was obtained from the Creek and Cherokee Indians by the United States in several treaties, one at Fort Jackson, Aug. 9, 1814, and one at the Cherokee Agency, July 8, 1817, and one at the Creek Agency on Flint river, Jan. 22, 1818, and included the original boundaries of Early, Irwin, Appling, Walton, Hall, Gwinnett, and Habersham counties. The land lots in Irwin and Appling counties contained 490 acres each, in the others 250 acres each.

Those entitled to draw were every free white male eighteen years of age and upwards, being a citizen of the United States and an inhabitant of this state three years immediately preceding this act, and all who served as drafted men or volunteers in the late Indian War, provided they had resided and continue to reside in this state since said service was performed, one draw; all officers and soldiers of the Revolutionary War who are indigent or invalid, two draws in addition to those heretofore authorized by law; should they have been fortunate drawers in previous lotteries, one draw; every male person of like description having a wife or legitimate male child or children under eighteen years, or unmarried female child or children, two draws; all widows with like residence one draw; all widows or orphans of soldiers killed in the late wars with Great Britian and the Indians, one draw, in addition to those already allowed widows and orphans by this act; all families of orphans under twenty-one years old whose father is dead, one draw; all orphans whose father and mother are both dead, two draws. Any citizen of the state who was legally drafted in the late war against Great Britain and the Indians who refused to serve either in person or by substitute, or who evaded a draft by leaving the state or county in which they resided, were not entitled to draw.

This act was amended Dec. 21, 1819 to include territory acquired of the Cherokee Indians by a treaty held by John C. Calhoun at the City of Washington Feb. 27, 1819, which was the original Rabun county, the lots to contain 490 acres each.

This seems to be a remnant.

Dear Mrs. Jordon:
Received your letter and thank you for the offer of Boswell information as of now I have not run into the Boswell's.
my grandmother was a Bates and she lived with us until I was 15, our youngest son started on Gen. 4 years ago, as he was only 15, I would have to carry him & I have become hooked, he is in his second year at Rice University and that leaves me to answer the letters, he goes to Clayton when he has time.
We have Bates information going back into England 1415 in getting it, we have Bates information from Mass. to Tex.

my husband had a stroke in May, and I would carry some of my material with me while I sat with him, the Query at the top of the page, Mrs. Jennings, we have been swaping infor. mation on the Lavenders, and your Bates caught my eye.
My husband is improving and at home, as soon as I have more time will check and see if I have yours Bates information.
What I need is parents of Bryan Lavender b. ca. 1790 Where?
find him first 1823 Jones Co. N. Car he married Nicia Keller they moved to Sumter Co. Ala. 1832 he died 1841, but we can not prove any Connection to the other Lavenders of that area.

I must Close and fix lunch.

yours truly.
Clytie M Lavender

Dear Mr. Maddox:

I did not put a query in the Cairo, Ga., paper but thank you for the effort of sending me the information on Anderson Bates.

Would you be so kind as to give a reference, other than Wilkes Co., Ga.? I thought that I had checked every marriage record available.

Enclosed are two stamps for your help.

Good Morning,

My name is Joan and I am doing my family tree on the Bates. Do the following names and dates mean anything to you????

James David Bates born June 13, 1899 and died Dec 17, 1951. He married Jennie W. on Aug 1, 1922. James was born in Fulton or Lucas County Ohio.

His father was Joesph Alvin Bates born April 1, 1865 and died March 11, 1913. He married Laura Wily on Aug 8, 1881. He was also born in Lucas or Fulton County. They had 8 children: Ethel May, Ida Jane, Jessie M., Bertha Roxie, James David, Frank Lincoln, Nellie May, William Alvin.

His parents were James M. Bates born 1812 and died in 1866 and that is all that I have on this family. Wife was Abigail Bates born 1821 and died 1882. That is all that I have on them. They are buried in OakShade Ohio.

As I am just starting out and find this all to be very intersting. I am enclosing a self addressed env in hopes that I will hear from you soon and that you might be able to give any information that you might have on the Bates name. As I said, I am just getting started in this and don*t have lots of information to your help.

This has really been lots of fun and the more that I do, the more that I want to do. Let me hear from you soon. Have a good day.....

Dear Georgia:

I do like that name? My only grand daughter is named Georgia! Named for her grandfather Jordan's birth place, the State.

Our Bates' do not seem to match up.

'My' Bates come into the Jordan (pronounced-Jurdan) by way of my husband's maternal line, the Boswell family. Carolyn Bates m 1831 to George Boswell. Carolyn probably born in Wilkes Co., GA- she died 1895 in Talbot Co.,GA.

Carolyn's father was Anderson Bates probably from S. C.

I've checked my Bates files and come up with this address of a Joan Johnson who wrote to me about her Bates. She has a Joseph Alvin Bates b 1865 in Lucas or Fulton Co.,OH. You might to contact her. Her letter to me is dated 1984 so the address may not be current. 617 West End St. Alma, Mich 48801.

Good Hunting! If you ever run into my Bates, let me know.

Sincerely,

added - that the other surnames in her letter, are not in my line.

In sending him a copy of the Bible Record that you had sent to me, I realized that you hadn't followed through on trying to get a xeroxed copy of the pages from the source in Charlotte,NC. Could you try to get that for us??

Also, I wanted to tell you that I just happened on a record for the burial place of 'a' Anderson Bates.

Ref: Georgia Genealogical Society Qly v 12 #4

Murray Cemetery in Sumter Co., GA; Amongst the burials of Murray's and Godwins is Anderson Bates 5 Apr 1788-8 Oct 1866 and Mrs. E. C. Bates 27 June 1827-20 Oct 1906. Wonder who she is??? and wonder if this is 'our' Anderson???

Hope you have luck getting that record. Let me hear from you.

Dear Kenny:

My Bates family is on my husband's Boswell line.

Carolyn Bates b 1813 GA m George Boswell 1831 in Talbot Co.,GA.
Her father was Anderson Bates b 1788 VA d 1866 Sumter Co.,GA.

Anderson Bates' father was probably David Bates. In 1810 Wilkes Co.,GA David Bates, dec., Anderson and Randolph Bates were in charge of the Estate Sale. Drusilla, Anderson, Randolph and David Bates were purchasers.

I've gone through my 'Misc' Bates file and none of your names appear.

I have several lineage of Bates going back to VA and none of them carry the given names you listed so I would guess your line is not VA.

Wish I could be sending you some better news. I'll put your record with the others and if someone should write me, I'll send it on to you. Do you have a U.S. address that months from now or years would be a good way to contact you?

Take care and keep on searching!

September 24, 1991

Dear Mr. Jordan,

I am relatively new to genealogy and am trying to put the pieces of my family tree together. I inherited most of what I have from my Grandmother. I am currently stationed in Japan with the Marine Corps. Research material is nonexistent here so all of my research has to be done by mail so I am writing to people who might have information on my families. (It seems like years since I had the opportunity to sit down and write letters or work on my genealogy; Desert Storm kept us all very busy around here and my trips left me with little time for anything other than work.) Now that things are getting back to normal, I am trying to catch up on my research.

Mr. Lester Merklin of Washington sent my your name and address as a BATES researcher. I am hoping that you might have come across my BATES.

My current search is for the parents of Napolean B. BATES. I have a copy of his Civil War file. He enlisted as a private in 1861 in Company B of the 8th Tennessee Volunteers. His discharge certificate was completed in 1862 and showed his age as 36 years old, putting his birth date in approximately 1826. He stated that he had been born in Bedford County, Tennessee. I was told that there were 3 or 4 men (head of household) on the 1830 Bedford County, Tennessee Census that could have been Napolean Bates father, and they are were all born in Virginia. (I do not have access to this census so I don't know what their names were.) Napolean B. Bates married Martha Jane BOAZ (b. 16 Nov 1834 and d. 25 Aug 1911). Their children were James, William, Louisa, Joseph Edgar, John, and David Bates. I have other information about his children, especially my great grandfather, Joseph Edgar BATES.

I have written to every person who even sounds like they might have some information about the Bates family. In several of the letters I failed to specify that the Bedford County that I was interested in was in Tennessee. L. Earl Colley assumed that I meant Virginia and gave me some information about marriages in Virginia. I realize that it does not help us directly but it does provide any immediate answers but it does raise some interesting questions. Below is the information from Mr. Colley's letter:

1. John Bates will probated		1777	Bedford Co., VA
2. John Bates	m. Mary Jones	1774	Bedford Co., VA
3. William Bates	m. Elizabeth Gibbs	1779	Bedford Co., VA
4. James Bates	m. Susanna Witt	1788	Pittsylvania Co., VA
5. Matthew Bates	m. Mary Jones	1788	Pittsylvania Co., VA
6. Samuel Bates	m. Martha Austin	1793	Pittsylvania Co., VA
7. Mesack Boaz *	m. Nancy Penick	1805	Prince Edward Co., VA
8. Daniel Boaz	m. Frances Hix	1806	Prince Edward Co., VA
9. Edmond Boaz *	m. Salley Thurman	1796	Pittsylvania Co., VA
10. Daniel Boaz	m. Lydia Inman	1796	Pittsylvania Co., VA
11. Henry	m. Polley Hester	1788	Pittsylvania Co., VA
12. Thomas Boaz	m. Lucy Davis	1804	Pittsylvania Co., VA
13. Thomas Boaz inventory		1795	Pittsylvania Co., VA

I know that:

- Napolean B. Bates was born in 1826 in Bedford County, TN (Civil War Records)
- His father was probably born in Virginia (1830 Census)
- Napolean Bates married Martha Boaz
- Martha Boaz's grandfather was Edmund Boaz (#9 above)
- Martha Boaz had a great uncle named Meshack Boaz
- Pittsylvania and Bedford Counties are side by side
- Prince Edward County is near to the two others
- Napolean Bates named his sons James, William, and John

I have written to every person who even sounds like they might have some information about the Bates family. In several of the letters I asked to specify that the Bedford County line I was interested in was in Virginia. Mrs. Colley assumed that I meant Virginia and gave me some information about marriages in Virginia. I realize that it does not help us directly but it does provide any immediate ancestors but it does raise some interesting questions. Below is the information from Mrs. Colley's letter:

1. John Bates will probated		1777	Bedford Co., VA
2. John Bates	m. Mary Moore	1776	Bedford Co., VA
3. William Bates	m. Elizabeth Vines	1777	Bedford Co., VA
4. James Bates	m. Susanna Wilt	1797	Pittsylvania Co., VA
5. Matthew Bates	m. Mary Moore	1808	Pittsylvania Co., VA
6. Samuel Bates	m. Martha Austin	1798	Pittsylvania Co., VA
7. Mary Bates	m. Nancy Tardik	1805	Franklin County Co., VA
8. Thomas Bates	m. Frances Fitz	1818	Franklin Edward Co., VA
9. Edmund Bates	m. Sally Thomas	1835	Pittsylvania Co., VA
10. Dr. Joel Bates	m. Lydia Jordan	1865	Pittsylvania Co., VA
11. Albert	m. Polly Foster	1893	Pittsylvania Co., VA
12. Thomas Bates	m. Lucy Davis	1924	Pittsylvania Co., VA
13. Thomas Bates lives here		1964	Pittsylvania Co., VA

Line of Dates:

- Napoleon B. Bates was born in 1876 in Bedford Co., VA (City Not Recorded)
- His father was probably born in Virginia (USA) [illegible]
- Napoleon Bates married Martha Boggs
- Martha Boggs's grandfather was Edmund Boggs (68 years old)
- Martha Boggs had a great uncle named Mordecai Boggs
- Pittsylvania and Bedford Counties are side by side
- Franklin County is next to the two others
- Napoleon Bates married his cousin James William and John

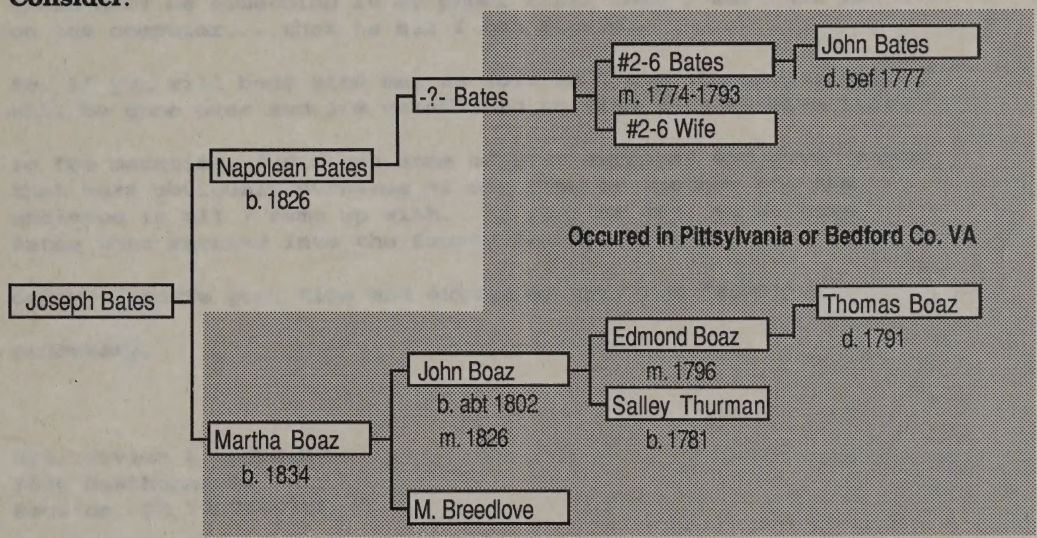
I can assume:

- Napolean Bates' father was probably married 1815-1825
- Napolean Bates' father was probably born 1785-1805
- The Thomas Boaz (#13) was possibly Edmond Boaz's father

Questions:

- Could one of the Bates listed above (#2-6) be Napolean B. Bates grandfathers?
- Could the John Bates (#1) whose will was probated have been Napolean Bates' great grandfather?
- Were Napolean Bates' sons named after uncles who might have been named after uncles?

Consider:



It sure is coincidental that all of these people live in the same place, at the right times.

I would appreciate any information or assistance that you might be able to provide. You are most welcome to any information that I have.

Sincerely,

Kenny Burrow

Dear Mr. Bates:

Your letter of the 9 Oct has just put my mind in a whirl!! I've been slowly putting our families (Bates is one of my husband's lines) into the computer. Your letter sent me to the computer where I pulled up the index of names and no David.

Would you believe that I can not figure out where I pulled the information from that I put into that July query???? I know that age is making me more forgetful and etc., but really, there MUST be something in my paper files that I saw that isn't on the computer....that is all I can figure.

So, if you will bear with me, as soon as I can, the paper files will be gone over and I'm determined to find this elusive info.

In the meantime, I did run some of your surnames and given names that were obviously surnames at one time or another and the enclosed is all I came up with. As you can see, we do have Bates that married into the Causey family.

Sorry to waste your time and excuse my very red face!!

Re your request / query in Bates Boostr July 1997.

I enclose FGS on Thompson Gregory Bates, his son Sebron Bates of Union Co S.C, and later Scott Co Ark.

You mention of Seaborn Causey could be a family connection, although spelling not same - but some times used Seaborn / Sebron. alternately.

If you can connect please do so, will then furnish you more (but later) information.

Thompson Could be David's son or bro.

Yours truly

William B Bates

P.S. My son lives at Sugar Land, my father Jeff was born in Sandusky Texas with the Abraham of Virginia. I am inclined to doubt any relationship, however, as the baptismal name, Joseph, is not found in the Virginia descendants, a fact significant.

Lately, an esteemed correspondent sent me some notes gleaned from the Pennsylvania Archives, from which it appears that a "William Venables, upon his first arrival, procured a warrant from Thos. Holme in 1682, for 300 acres of land to be laid out in Bucks, near the Falls," etc. This William had two daughters, Joyce and Frances, but apparently no sons; and so Thomas Venables, who was a Justice of Peace in Philadelphia County in 1745 and in 1749, and a Sarah Venables who was married to William Jenkins in 1767, seem to be unaccounted for.

As if to add to the tangle, a "Ralph Vennables" left England in 1635, for the Bermudas. Must we look to this Ralph as the progenitor of the Virginia families? I have done my best to connect the Virginia line with their English progenitors, but have thus far failed. Perhaps some other may solve the problem.[1]

1 Note.—For almost all my data concerning the English Venables, I am relying upon Ormerod's "History of Cheshire."

	Draws		Draws
Wright, Sary trustee of orphs. of John Smith, dec'd.	1	Young, Frances wid.	1

We do certify that the foregoing contains a list of persons applicants for draws in the present Contemplated Land Lottery, with the number of draws to which they are entitled in Maj. James Patterson's Batt. in Wilkes Co. Given from under our hands this first day of Sept. 1806

John Evans
James Patterson.

LAND LOTTERY OF 1819—EXPLANATORY

The land given out in this lottery was obtained from the Creek and Cherokee Indians by the United States in several treaties, one at Fort Jackson, Aug. 9, 1814, and one at the Cherokee Agency, July 8, 1817, and one at the Creek Agency on Flint river, Jan. 22, 1818, and included the original boundaries of Early, Irwin, Appling, Walton, Hall, Gwinnett, and Habersham counties. The land lots in Irwin and Appling counties contained 490 acres each, in the others 250 acres each.

Those entitled to draw were every free white male eighteen years of age and upwards, being a citizen of the United States and an inhabitant of this state three years immediately preceding this act, and all who served as drafted men or volunteers in the late Indian War, provided they had resided and continue to reside in this state since said service was performed, one draw; all officers and soldiers of the Revolutionary War who are indigent or invalid, two draws in addition to those heretofore authorized by law; should they have been fortunate drawers in previous lotteries, one draw; every male person of like description having a wife or legitimate male child or children under eighteen years, or unmarried female child or children, two draws; all widows with like residence one draw; all widows or orphans of soldiers killed in the late wars with Great Britian and the Indians, one draw, in addition to those already allowed widows and orphans by this act; all families of orphans under twenty-one years old whose father is dead, one draw; all orphans whose father and mother are both dead, two draws. Any citizen of the state who was legally drafted in the late war against Great Britain and the Indians who refused to serve either in person or by substitute, or who evaded a draft by leaving the state or county in which they resided, were not entitled to draw.

This act was amended Dec. 21, 1819 to include territory acquired of the Cherokee Indians by a treaty held by John C. Calhoun at the City of Washington Feb. 27, 1819, which was the original Rabun county, the lots to contain 490 acres each.

This seems to be a remnant.

Georgia BATES FAMILY File VM Amis 1965

Whether all the Bates of the Early Records of Wilkes Co., Ga. as compiled by Mrs. Davidson..are of the same Bates I do not know. At least some of them came from Pittsylvania and Halifax Counties, Virginia.

In Halifax Co..Va..Feb. 20, 1782..David Bates married Drucilla Echols. Other Bates marriages there..one of a Fleming to a Peggy Milliner..1792. I know from my Meck. Co., Va. book on the Revolu by Mrs. Elliott..that a Capt. Fleming Bates of Halifax is mention Drucilla Echols above was dau. of Moses Echols. And in Wilkes Co. 1806..you see David Bates and Moses Echols..son of Anna Daniel..as executors for will of Anna Daniel..giving land in Pittsylvania Co. Va.

When David Bates died 1807/1810 Anderson Bates, Randolph Bates, Drucilla and David Bates are listed. David Sr? Andrew Bates a

David Evans deceased sale 1808..mentioned property given in his li time to John Bates....and from Early Ga Wills etc by Sarah Quinn Smith: David Evans..deceased..Arden Evans adm. Jan 9, 1821.. Paid distributees: John Bates, James Bates, Jesse Evans, Anderso Bates, Eliz Evans, Wm Evans, Peter Lunsford who married Susanna E and John W. Bates who married Rhoda Evans. page 123 Then on page 42...1860 Arden Evans Sr. lists Bates heirs...and this can help work out that family.....

Marriages show John Bates married Rhoda Evans Dec 9, 1817..so thi is John W. Bates. Caroline Bates m. Geo. Boswell 1831 Carey C m. Hannah Bates 1825.....Anderson Bates m. Jane Combs Jul. 4, 1819

A note I have from Phyllis Bates Wright: James Bates b. Virginia 1780/1790 went to Wilkes Co., Ga. where he married Hannah Evans..d of David Evans in 1808 or 1809. He moved from Wilkes Co., Ga to what later became Montgomery Co. Ala..about 1812..then to Holmes Co. Miss. in the early 1830's. Hannah died..and he married 2nd Mary James Bates and Hannah Evans had: John Fleming Bates b. Ga. 1811. David Evans Bates b. Sept 15, 1816; and Mathew Bates who died wi Taylor's Army during the Mexican War and was buried at Millgan's B on the Miss.

John Bates who married Rhoda Evans 1817 must have died..and this i his widow..1850 Coweta Co., Ga.. Rhoda Bates 52 b. Ga. so there 1798. Katherine Bates 16, John 13, Hannah 9...ch. all b. Ga.

Mrs. LeMaster sent this:

Stella Kate Harmon married Hugh Young.

Ara May Harmon, born May 1, 1876, married June 23, 1902, Oscar Avalon Farmer, Iowa.

CHAMBERS-COOMBS FAMILY

The seat of the Coombs family in England was in old Stratford, Warwick County. Coombs Abbey still remains and is inhabited by some of the family of that name.

The will of John A. Coombs was probated in Warwick County, England, January 28, 1878. In this will he leaves his property to his wife, William Chambers, and mentions his ancient coat-of-arms and crest (crest, Mr. Jean Vlaskin). Descendants of this family came to America very early.

Enoch Coombs and wife, Eunice, with son, Enoch, settled in Maryland, 1634, as shown in "Early Settlers"—Liber 7, Folio 651. The family was associated in both St. Mary's and Charles Counties, Maryland, and intermarried with the best colonial families.

Thomas Coombs, Lieutenant in Charles County, Maryland, in 1687. He was commissioned by Lord Baltimore, warrant dated given his brother, John, in 1670. He was born about 1645. He had seven children, Thomas, 1674 to 1743. He married Anne Sheridan, daughter of William Sheridan and Sidney Thompson, prior to 1687. Thomas died without leaving a will in 1727, at nearly a hundred years of age. His inventory, Inv. 36, p. 69, recorded in son, Richard II, John Coombs, Charles and Francis Dorsey (see will of Wm. Sheridan).

Richard Coombs II married Martha Green, daughter of Leonard Green, son of Governor Thomas Green and wife, Martha. Will of Leonard Green of St. Mary's County, probated January 10th, 1707, mentioned Jury 4th, 1698, leaves to wife, Ann, "Green's Neck," or part of his Tavern, Thomas and Mary, sole plaintiffs at death of his mother. Dear Mrs. Harrell:

I have seen your generation chart on the Sinyard/Harbison Families and I am extremely interested in the BATES family that married into your Sinyard family.

My husbandss people are all from Georgia and I've always thaught that Fleming Bates was some how or other connected with his line.

My husband's maternal line is BOSWELL. Carolyn Bates, b Aug 1813 Ga., m 1 Dec 1831 George Boswell. She died 1895 in Talbot,Co.,Ga. Her father, I believe was Anderson Bates b 5 Apr 1788 Va. and d 8 Oct 1866 in Sumter Co., Ga. He married several times but I believe that Carolyn's mother was a Evans.

If your files could lend any light on this BATES line I would be every so grateful for any tips as to where to go or what to look up so further this line.

I enclose a SASE and hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

G O N E T O T E X A S

A brief history of some Smith, Bates, Cody, Taliaferro, Haley, Magill, Jones, Stough, Shows and Rogers families of the South.

by
W. Wayne Rogers
Bloomington, Illinois
1978

The connection is yet to be established but it appears that the earliest Bates ancestor is Robert, Vice Master of Oxford whose son John married Martha Mallory. Four of their sons, William, Henry, John and Thomas Bates came, with a host of Mallory relations, to Virginia very early. John Bates, Jr. was born in 1598 and was in Jamestown by 1623, 16 years after the first settlement. He married Elizabeth Daniels and his descendents are well documented. They do not however include our James Bates.

Little is known of the other brother emigrants. Thomas and Henry Bates obtained a patent for 5,787 acres of land in April, 1668 on the Appomattox River for 118 "headrights", Capt. Henry Bates, by direction of Governor Berkeley, crossed the Blue Ridge Mountains in 1671 and came to a tribe of Indians living on a river flowing westward. He was a Burgess from Charles City County in 1691. Thomas Bates explored southwest Virginia as far as the Cumberland Mountains and was a Burgess for Henrico County. He died in 1698. William Bates was a Burgess for Surry County in 1654 and for Elizabeth City County in 1658-59.

William Bates, b. 1646, married Martha Willard and lived in Essex and King and Queen Counties in the 1660s. He was probably a son of one of the emigrant brothers.

Other Bates families of northern Virginia include those of Edward Bates who married in Richmond County in 1729 and died in Fairfax County in 1762; William Bates, Sr. b. ca. 1735, lived in Madison and Culpeper Counties (His son, Reuben (sic) m. Eliz. Roebuck); and Robert Bates who married Betsy Johnson in Fauquier County in 1756.

Our James Bates was born about 1710 and lived in that part of Stafford Co., Va. which later became Fauquier. He later lived in Louisa County and died after 1794.

Reuben Bates, Sr. was born January 24, 1731 in Stafford County, Va., the son of James Bates. He married Sarah Prestridge December 4, 1757.

Sarah Prestridge was born on Sept. 30, 1733 in Stafford Co., Va., the daughter of Phillip and Mary Prestridge. She had three sons by a Duncombe: John 1748- ; William 1750- ; and a third born in 1753.

Issue of Reubin Bates, Sr. and Sarah Prestridge:

1. Moses Bates m. (1) Rebecca Fleming 1787 Louisa Co.; (2) Elizabeth Garth 1793, Louisa Co.

   a. Rebecca 1788-

   b. David G. by second wife.

2. Thomas Bates m. Nancy Groom 1796, Louisa Co..

3. William Bates 1764-1846 of Amherst Co., Va. m. (1) Rosanna Meader 1785 Cumberland Co.

   a. Lucy m. John Paget 1810
   b. Jennet G. m. John B. F. Clarkson 1827
   c. Daniel m. Sally Lavender 1825
   d. William W.
   e. Bennet C. m. Catherine Goodrich 1815
   f. Elizabeth m. Ambrose Jones 1821
   g. Sarah m. John Wilmore
